STAT

SUBJECT: Request by Harvard Doctoral Student for Release of an FBIS/JPRS Publication Designated "For Official Use Only"

REFERENCE: Your Memo, dtd 26 Dec 84, Same Subject

Art:

1. I think there are a few errors in your draft which might be corrected by changing it to read as follows:

2. Subparagraph on page 1, numbered 1):

1) The legislative authority under which this publication is produced relates to the production of information for use of governmental personnel employing it in the exercise of their official duties;

3. Page 2, line 12, should read:

x x x who advises that press materials which appear in JPRS/FBIS publications made available to the public through the National Technical Information Service of the Department of Commerce are those which we have purchased under contractual arrangements with foreign publishers, or which are not copyrighted by the publisher, and are not, therefore, subject x x x etc.

4. Last sentence page 2 should read:

x x x Information acquired from publicly-aired radio broadcasts and telecasts aired for a general audience, while in some instances and forms must be restricted, is generally not subject to the provisions of the Convention as is the case in reproducing published material verbatim.

5. First paragraph, page 3, last sentence should read:

x x x What we cannot do, however, is release material to the general public which is designed and authorized for official recipients only, and we cannot publish a separate unrestricted version for nonofficial consumption because we have no authority in terms of funds and manpower to accomplish that purpose.

SUBJECT: Request of an FBIS/JPRS Publication Designated "For Official Use Only"

6. I would be pleased to get together with you at any time to discuss this further if you believe it necessary.
